

Summary of Three John School Programs: Portland and Multnomah County, Oregon

Program Name	Year Program Began	Primary Partners	Diversion or Sentence	Fee	Duration	Curriculum Elements	Number of Participants	Recidivism Results
Sexual Exploitation Education Project (SEEP)	1995-1997	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> District Attorney Council for Prostitution Alternatives University of Portland 	Sentence	$250 (class fee) $300 (fine imposed by court, paid to city)	3 sessions, 15 hours total	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> healthy relationships sexual exploitation gender inequality generalized mistreatment of women male sexual identity men's choices creating coercion impact on survivors (testimony) 	91	2.2% (2/91)
Portland Prostitution Offender Program (PPOP)	2003-2006	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Lola Greene Baldwin Foundation Multnomah County Community and Circuit Courts 	Sentence	$82.50	1 session, 6 hours	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> health risks crime victimization risk impact on community impact on survivors (testimony) sexual addiction dynamics of pimping, trafficking 	Over 20	Not Available
Sex Buyer's Accountability and Diversion (SBAD)	2011	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Lifeworks Northwest Multnomah County District Attorney 	Diversion for 1st time offenders Sentence for 2nd or more offenses Prosecutors can add john school to any sentence	$1,000	1 session, 8 hours	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> health risks crime victimization risk impact on community impact on survivors (testimony) sexual addiction dynamics of pimping & trafficking impact on johns healthy relationships relapse prevention 	Over 50	Not Available

Source: Compiled for the National Assessment, Abt Associates, 2012